ORDER

MOTION	RULING
Docket # 61 Hato Rey Community Hospital's "Motion in Compliance with Court Order and Requesting Entry of Default"	Co-defendant's compliance is noted . However, its request for entry of default is denied , as third-party defendants have answered the third-party complaint.
Docket # 66 Co-defendants Antonio Saldaña de la Rosa and Seguros Triple S, Inc.'s "Opposition to Motion Requesting Entry of Default..."	Leave to file answer to amended third-party complaint is granted . The Clerk of the Court shall file co-defendants' tendered answer.
Docket # 69 Co-defendant Ariel Vera's "Motion Setting Entry of Default"	Considering that the Court's order directing that default be entered against co-defendant Vera and the latter's answer to the amended complaint were both filed on the same date, the Court grants co-defendant's motion. Accordingly, default against co-defendant Ariel Vera is hereby set-aside .
Docket # 70 Co-defendant Doctor's Community Hospital's "Notice of Appearance"	Attorney Dieppa-González's motion to withdraw was granted on August 19, 1999. See Docket # 58. The appearance of Jeanette López de Victoria is noted . The Clerk of the Court shall forward all future notifications to Ms. López de Victoria at Pinto Lugo & Rivera, P.O. Box 9024098, PR 00902-4098.
